Mission

The mission of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Kansas City is to promote the practice of tzedakah (charity) and the pursuit of tikkun olam (repairing the world) by serving as the advocate for planned giving and the central resource for personalized charitable funds for individuals, families, and organizations in the community.

Vision

The vision of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Kansas City is to foster, sustain and ensure a strong and vibrant Jewish community for today and for generations to come.

A Year of Giving Generously

Month after month, the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Kansas City works tirelessly to promote the practice of tzedakah (charity) and the pursuit of tikkun olam (repairing the world) by serving as the advocate for planned giving and the central resource for personalized charitable funds. In all those respects and thanks to you, 2017 was indeed another Year of Giving Generously.

Over the course of the year, the Foundation provided customized philanthropic counsel to dozens of individuals and families, presented to numerous nonprofit boards and committees, trained and coached countless lay and professional leaders and conducted dozens of philanthropic educational programs to encourage and amplify our community's "smarter giving." Collectively, our partners contributed $18.2 million to Foundation funds. Again, additions to funds from estate distributions played a significant part, representing nearly 10% of all dollars contributed. By the close of the year, Donor Advised Fund advisors and the governing committees of the Foundation's Community Legacy Fund and family Supporting Foundations granted nearly $14.5 million in 4,406 separate grants, impacting 971 unique charities. Of the total amount granted, 60% was distributed to Jewish organizations and 87% of that money was given locally, supporting literally every Jewish organization from Topeka to St. Joe.

From a strategic perspective, the Foundation prioritized listening in 2017. We created numerous opportunities through surveys and focus groups to understand better how our work is perceived, how our role and value in the community is understood and to uncover the needs that have not yet been addressed by our programming and outreach. Through this process, Foundation leadership learned a great many things. First and foremost, that the Foundation is viewed as a respected, trusted, and creative resource and advocate for Jewish philanthropy in Kansas City. Second, and no less important, we learned that the Jewish community is looking to the Foundation to learn about ways to engage their families in conversations about why and how to be charitable. This feedback will serve as a baseline to evaluate our strategic goals and will help inform the actions we take to accomplish them in 2018 and onward.

This year and every year, thanks to all of you for making the Foundation the thriving community catalyst that it is, and for your caring commitment to creating a better world. As we move forward into the future together, we renew our commitment to serve you so that you can continue to give smarter and generously.

Our Programs: B'nai Tzedek

The B'nai Tzedek program introduces B'nai Mitzvah-age youth to charitable giving by allowing them to open their own philanthropic funds at the Foundation. B'nai Tzedek teaches teens about the agencies that help meet the needs of the Jewish community and empowers them to make a positive difference in the world. Teens and their families make a minimum donation of $125 to open a fund, and the Foundation contributes $375, for a total balance of at least $500. Every year participants may grant 10% of their fund balance to a Jewish agency either locally or in Israel.

In March, B'nai Tzedek fundholders and parents gathered for the Foundation's annual youth philanthropy fair, the B'nai Tzedek Shuk. The theme of the event was "Be the Change," inspired by the Mahatma Gandhi quote, "Be the change you wish to see in the world." More than $3,000 was granted by B'nai Tzedek fundholders to nonprofits at the event. "There are so many passionate teens in Kansas City and the Shuk is the perfect place to impact incredible organizations and 'Be the Change' we envision for our world," says Haidee Clauer, Youth Council member. The Shuk was made possible through the generous support of the Sam and Lucy Gould JCF Program Fund.

Our Programs: J-LEAD

J-LEAD (Jewish Leadership, Education, Action and Development) brings together young Jewish adults in their 20s, 30s and 40s to make a substantive difference in the Jewish community. J-LEAD is a giving circle that makes grants from funds collected by its members ($500 charitable contribution for membership) as well as matching funds from the Jewish Community Foundation's Community Legacy Fund and other generous Foundation donors. By pooling resources together and collectively making grant decisions, J-LEAD members are able to achieve a greater impact than any one member could alone.

Our Programs: Create a Jewish Legacy

Create a Jewish Legacy (CJL) is the Foundation's effort to help secure the long-term future of community programs and institutions through an emphasis on planned giving. The Foundation works closely with local Jewish agencies and congregations to better cultivate planned gifts. Goals of the program include securing planned gift commitments, building and maintaining strong relationships between donors and organizations, developing strong leaders, and building public awareness of planned giving. See page 20 for a list of legacy giving donors.

Parking Lot Lunch – On May 17th the Foundation hosted a “Parking Lot Lunch” educational session featuring a panel of experienced community donors and leaders. The panel shared examples of the “good, bad and ugly” with respect to donor stewardship and offered new approaches to legacy gift development. (Pictured, from left to right: Susie Goldsmith, Ann Slegman Isenberg, moderator, Howard Mayer and Dan Scharf.)

Legacy Giving Day – Jean Zeldin, Midwest Center for Holocaust Education, and Cindy Bodker, The J, participated with many colleagues and community leaders in the Foundation's inaugural Legacy Giving Day on September 14th. The program featured Kathryn Miree, a nationally renowned expert on the topic of legacy giving, who presented to various Foundation audiences, including our Board of Trustees, local agency partners and professional advisors.

The J's Legacy Society Stewardship Event – Andrew Kaplan, Jill Maidhof, Barry Kaseff, and Josh Stein (JCF) attended The J's stewardship event for their legacy donors on November 15th at the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art. The evening included remarks of gratitude and inspiration and a special tour of the Pablo Picasso exhibit. The event was funded and inspired, in part, by a grant from the Jewish Community Foundation.

The Foundation would especially like to thank the late Lucy and Sam Gould for their generous support in helping make these Create a Jewish Legacy events possible through their own legacy gift to the Foundation.

Our Funds: Community Legacy Funds

“Our family has had a longstanding meaningful connection with the Jewish Community Foundation. My grandfather, Louis Lowenstein, and my great uncle, Carl Lowenstein, contributed a significant portion of their estates to the Foundation. My father served as Foundation President (1991-94), while I have long served on the Board. The Lowenstein Family Supporting Foundation has been an integral part of our family’s philanthropic tradition through which we have supported innovative programs and services across the spectrum of the Jewish and general communities. The resources of the Foundation, primarily its staff, are invaluable to our mission, and have helped us become better philanthropists. The input of our community trustees provides a wealth of knowledge and ensures that we maximize our charitable impact. Jewish camping, which is a top funding priority of ours, has been proven to be a strong support of Jewish continuity. Each August the returning campers bring the energy and enthusiasm gained from their camp experiences back to our community.” - Lon Lowenstein

Our Funds: Donor Advised Funds

Donor Advised Funds are personal charitable giving accounts that enable donors to give smarter and maximize their charitable impact. Established with contributions of $5,000 or more ($2,500 for those under age 35), Donor Advised Funds allow donors to recommend grants to any qualified charitable organization. Donors may name successor advisors in order to encourage future generations to continue their traditions of giving.

"I learned from an early age about the importance of tzedakah and that giving back can take many forms. Through my participation in the Foundation's B'nai Tzedek program, I realized that while giving time is important and necessary, organizations ultimately need money to succeed. In June I opened a JCF Donor Advised Fund to further my philanthropy. My first grant was to the Rabbi Gershon Hadas Guardian Society for Jewish Children in honor of my father, Alan's, retirement. Even now, having lived outside of Kansas City for more than five years, I am able to stay connected to my community and its wonderful organizations through the Foundation."

- Jonathan Edelman

New Foundation Family members Michael and Lindsay Fineman opened their Donor Advised Fund in December. “We can’t thank the Foundation enough for helping us set up our fund. Knowing that, with three growing daughters, there will likely be many unexpected expenses, this fund is an easy way to proactively set aside money for philanthropic organizations that are meaningful to us. As younger adults, we realized we were most often making many small donations in a disorganized way and could never be sure our dollars were making a significant impact. By keeping our philanthropic budget in a fund, we have time to be more thoughtful with where our contributions can be the most helpful. Most importantly, we want to teach our kids the value of giving tzedakah, doing mitzvot, and contributing back to this wonderful community. We set up our fund with the hope that our girls will also find causes they are passionate about, will be able to use the fund toward helping those organizations every year, and will be able to pass this fund down to future generations.”

“Our family has always believed in the importance of giving back to others and the community. Having a fund at the Jewish Community Foundation enables us to be more strategic and organized with our charitable giving. In addition to assisting organizations that help disadvantaged children, we particularly appreciate our ability, through the Foundation, to quickly and efficiently support relief efforts when a natural disaster strikes or other need arises. This past October, as we witnessed the devastation caused by Hurricanes Harvey, Irma, and Maria, it was important to us to respond to the urgent need and the Foundation made it simple to act. All we needed to do was go online to request the grant and we could rest assured that the Foundation would handle the rest.” - Irv Robinson

Our Funds: Restricted Funds

Restricted Funds give donors and their families the opportunity to make contributions that reflect their unique charitable interests, honor loved ones or express their desire to leave a legacy to the community. These funds may be restricted for a particular project, organization or congregation, or field of interest.

When going through his late father's apartment, Pete Levi discovered a treasure: a collection of well-preserved letters that told the story of his parents' courtship. His father, Kurt, had fled to the United States from pre-war Nazi Germany and exchanged "love letters" with his future wife, Ruth, who remained in Germany. They were married upon her arrival to the U.S. in February, 1938. Recognizing the historical and academic value of these letters, Pete created a restricted fund at the Foundation, enabling him to work with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Kansas University students, and others in translating and preserving the letters and telling their story.

Tikkun-KC is a local nonprofit organization which takes empty lots and houses slated to be torn down and transforms them into vibrant blocks filled with revitalized homes, engaged homeowners and urban farms. Tikkun-KC founder Larry Myer has more than 30 years of experience renovating and managing Kansas City urban core housing. Larry chose to work with the Foundation because of its professional resources and to ease his administrative burden, allowing the organization to focus on its mission of changing the world one house at a time. The first Tikkun-KC house was built in September.

Myer was inspired to found Tikkun-KC by a quote from Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson. "If you see what needs to be repaired and know how to repair it, then you have found a piece of the world that G-d has left for you to complete. But if you only see what is wrong and what is ugly in the world, then it is you that needs repair."

“My parents instilled in me the values of charitable giving and supporting worthy causes in our community. My father, Sandy Cohn, passed away in January. He had a long history of leadership in the Jewish Community Foundation and served as a Life Trustee. He had the foresight to establish a Charitable Remainder Trust with the Foundation as the Trustee to provide ongoing support of the many causes he cared about, through the Foundation’s Community Legacy Fund. He was an advocate for the Foundation and encouraged many others to consider ways that the Foundation could support their personal charitable goals. I continue to be inspired by my parents’ dedication to our community and am proud of the impact they made during their lives and through this planned gift, will continue to make long into the future.” - David Cohn

“My parents, Aaron and Sophie Braeman, were World War II veterans, and Kansas City is our home. The Kansas City veterans’ community was then, and remains today, dedicated to helping veterans and others. I had a vision to create a book as a tribute to all those who have nobly served in the various branches of our military. It has been a privilege to work with a dedicated team to create a book honoring the legacies of the servicemen and women from the Kansas City Jewish community. The beautifully designed book is expected to be released around Memorial Day in May. By creating a fund through the Jewish Community Foundation and working with their leadership, I am able to support the effort in a manner that all proceeds from the sale of the books will create an endowment for the ongoing programmatic efforts of the local Jewish War Veterans, Post #605. This project has been a labor of love, and I am so appreciative of all those who have helped to make this vision a reality.” - Roslyn Braeman Payne

“Our parents were deeply committed to the Kansas City Jewish community that meant so much to them and enriched their lives. When our mom, Liz, passed away in July, it was the end of an era for the Bohm name in Kansas City. As we mourn her loss, and also miss our dad, Jack, who has been gone nearly 10 years, we are comforted in knowing that their legacy in Kansas City will carry on. We are proud that they made a provision in their estate plan to continue their dedicated financial support of Congregation Beth Shalom through a fund at the Foundation.”

- Bob Bohm, Rick Bohm, and Lorie Bohm Klumb

Securing the Future

The Jewish Community Foundation is here to help you explore opportunities to create a Jewish legacy through a legacy gift. A legacy gift ensures that your values, and those of the charitable causes you care about, will continue into the future.

What is a legacy gift?

Legacy gifts are structured to provide you with the greatest strategic impact and tax benefits. Often designed to take effect in the future through your estate, legacy gifts can be simple to establish and are often used to create endowments, which provide long-term financial resources for the charities you care about most.

How can the Foundation help you establish a legacy gift?

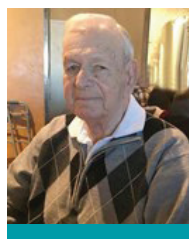

The Foundation develops giving strategies that benefit you, your family and your favorite charities. There are a wide array of creative methods to establish a legacy gift, and we are here to help you every step of the way. Popular legacy giving vehicles include:

- Outright gifts
- Charitable bequests
- Gifts that generate income for you or a loved one
- Qualified retirement plans
- Life insurance policies

Menorah Heritage Foundation

The Menorah Heritage Foundation (MHF), a supporting organization of the Jewish Community Foundation, came into existence in April 2016 as the result of a merger between the Jewish Heritage Foundation Supporting Organization and the Menorah Legacy Foundation. Both predecessor foundations were created from the roots of Menorah Hospital. Today, the Menorah Heritage Foundation remains deeply committed to Menorah Hospital's tradition of healing and compassionate service. Since 1994, MHF and its predecessors have distributed more than $61,000,000 to organizations in the Jewish and Greater Kansas City communities.

The Menorah Heritage Foundation maintains four distinct annual grant-making cycles which fund both proactive, transformational strategies and safety-net needs: Healthy for Life, Jewish Community, General Community Core and Older Adult. Menorah Heritage Foundation's grants in 2017 supported over 90 programs at 78 different organizations, including After the Harvest, Artists Helping the Homeless, El Centro, the Heritage Center at The J, High Aspirations, Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy, Inclusion Connections, Jewish Family Services, Midwest Center for Holocaust Education, Palestine Senior Activity Center, Reconciliation Services, the Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City, TribeKC, and Village Shalom.

So, what does it mean to be created from the roots of Menorah Hospital? One of MHF's predecessor foundations, the Jewish Heritage Foundation, was created in 1994 from the proceeds resulting from Menorah Medical Center joining Health Midwest, a local non-profit health care system. The other predecessor foundation, the Menorah Legacy Foundation, was created in 2003 when Health Midwest was purchased by HCA, a national for-profit health care company. At that time, the Menorah Medical Center Foundation concluded its affiliation with Menorah Medical Center, changed its name to the Menorah Legacy Foundation, and became an independent charitable foundation.

Jewish tradition holds that every act of goodness — every mitzvah commanded by the Torah — contributes to the ultimate repair of the world (tikkun olam), and that feeding the hungry, healing the sick and comforting the bereaved are building blocks for redemption. This tradition guides Menorah Heritage Foundation's vision that the Foundation, inspired by Jewish values, strategically supports organizations and initiatives that significantly improve the health and well-being of the Greater Kansas City community.
